LUCAS BACK IN CHARGE: Florida A&M announced last week the appointment of Robert Lucas as the school's head baseball coach.

LUCAS: Back for his second stint as baseball coach at FAMU.

Lucas replaces Joe Durant, 58, who was reassigned to administrative duties within the athletic department after serving as head coach from 1991 to 2007. Lucas, 63, who served last season as associate head coach to Durant, returns to the role of head baseball coach, a position he held from 1986 to 1991 at FAMU. During his time as head coach, Lucas compiled a record of 96-90-1, while leading FAMU to three MEAC Championships (1987, 1988, 1990). For the past 17 seasons (1990-2006), he has served as a minority college scout for the Atlanta Braves. He is the younger brother of the late Bill Lucas, who was the first African-American general manager in major league baseball for the Braves. Durant had a 17-year record of 363-486, winning three Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Championships (1991, 1992, 1994). His teams made 11 appearances in the MEAC Tournament finals in his career. Durant was also the first African-American to be named to the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee. He served as a committee member from 1999-2002.

SYLVAN MOVES TO SC STATE: Millicent Sylvan has been named head volleyball coach of the South Carolina State Lady Bulldogs.

SYLVAN: Leaves NC A&T volleyball to take over at SC State.

Her appointment was effective on July 1. Sylvan brings a wealth of volleyball knowledge to SCSU and is no stranger to the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC), having served the last three seasons as the head coach at North Carolina A&T. While at NC A&T, she compiled an overall record of 49-52 and 23-6 in the conference. In her second season with the Aggies, Sylvan's team posted a 9-1 conference record, good enough for a second place finish. In that same season she was named the MEAC Coach of the Year. Prior to her appointment at NC A&T, Sylvan spent three seasons at her alma mater, Alcorn State where she posted a 71-42 record, a pair of Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Eastern Division titles and two runner-up finishes. Sylvan currently holds a 120-94 overall record over a six year span. As a student-athlete, Sylvan was a two-sport standout at Alcorn State earning letters in volleyball and track. On the court she was a two-time All-SWAC selection and was named the pre-season volleyball SWAC Player of the Year in 2000. On the track, Sylvan was a 2000 USA Track and Field Indoor National Participant and a provisional qualifier in the long jump and the 100-meter hurdles in that same year. She currently owns the school and SWAC record in the heptathlon with 5,071 points. A four-year SWAC scholar athlete, Sylvan was a two-time recipient of the NCAA Leadership Award and a recipient of the Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar Athlete Award in 2000. She earned both her bachelor's in education (2000), and a master's degree in secondary education (2003) from Alcorn State.

NCAA TO STREAM ECSU OPENER: The Elizabeth City State season opener against Catawba College has been selected as one of the NCAA Division II Football Games of the Week.

The contest, which is slated for a 6:00 p.m. kickoff at Roebuck Stadium in Elizabeth City, NC, was chosen as one of four (4) broadband (internet) NCAA Division II Football Games of the Week. For the Vikings, who are coming off their best season in school history, the September 1st matchup will represent both their home and season opener. The game will be available and streamed LIVE at <http://www.NCAAsports.com/dii>.

Reeves to chair NCAA Committee

Fort Valley State Senior Woman Administrator, Gwendolyn Reeves, has been elected chairperson of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA) Minority Opportunity and Interests Committee. The election took place this summer in San Diego, Ca. Reeves is the first female ever to serve in this position.

REEVES

In September, she will be serving as chair of the 12-member committee, which consists of members from Division I, II and III institutions. The body she now leads collectively makes decisions. "The committee is an advocate for women, ethnic minorities and matters that deal with diversity," Reeves said. "We deal with select issues related to the welfare of student athletes, coaches and administrators." While serving on the committee, as a representative of FVSU and the SIAC, Reeves takes pleasure in promoting the university and her conference.

"I'm more focused on doing a great job for the organization," she said. "It's a pleasure to serve on the committee, represent FVSU and the SIAC." Reeves, who is also a graduate of FVSU, has moved up the ranks in the field of athletics. She began her career at FVSU as a Wellness Coordinator. She was later promoted to the position of Director of Athletics, a post she served in for five years. In addition to her duties as Senior Woman Administrator, she is also the Compliance Officer for Athletics and director of the Health and Physical Education Complex. Reeves' background in athletics was beneficial while serving on the NCAA Division II management council for six years.

DelState to play in pre-season NIT

The 16-team field for the 2007 Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off Tournament has been announced, and Delaware State's Hornets will travel to Columbus, Ohio to take on Columbia University of the Ivy League in a Midwest Region contest on November 12.

"It's an honor for our program to be a part of this pre-season tournament," said DSU Head Coach Greg Jackson. "The NIT gives us a chance to see strong competition early and also get good national exposure."

The Midwest Regional will be played at Ohio State University. The DSU/Columbia contest will tip off at 6:00 p.m., followed by Ohio State vs. Wisconsin Green-Bay at 9:00 p.m. The regional consolation and championship games will be played the following day.

"We are quite pleased with the caliber of teams in this year's event and we look forward to another exciting start to college basketball with the NIT," commented C.M. Newton, chair of the NIT Committee. The NIT Season Tip-Off, founded in 1985, will feature all first and second round contests at campus sites. All teams in the tournament are guaranteed at least two games. ESPN will provide coverage of the event, televising games on ESPN, ESPN2, and ESPNU.

The tournament will culminate in New York's Madison Square Garden with the semi-final doubleheader tipping off at 7 p.m. on November 21 (ESPN2). The championship doubleheader will be played on November 23, with the consolation game starting at 4:30 p.m. and the championship tipping off at 7 p.m. Each game will air on ESPN.

Hunter takes the reins of WSSU volleyball

Winston-Salem State University has hired Douglas Hunter as its new head volleyball coach. Hunter comes to the Rams program from North Carolina Central where he was an assistant coach.

Hunter takes the reins from former volleyball head coach Lataya Hilliard-Gray who moves on to lead the WSSU softball program. Hilliard-Gray spent four years leading the Lady Rams volleyball program leading the team to a 35-97 record during her tenure.

With 12 seasons of NCAA experience, Hunter brings a wealth of knowledge to the WSSU sidelines and will guide a youthful WSSU squad that features no seniors and five newcomers.

Prior to leading his arrival at WSSU, Hunter spent five seasons as an assistant with the NCCU Lady Eagles program where he helped guide the team to CIAA championships in 2004, 2005 and 2006. He also spent time as an assistant coach at St. Augustine's College where he helped guide the CIAA championship teams in 1997, 2000, and 2001.

Hunter will make his head coaching debut on August 28th when the Lady Rams take on the Campbell Camels in a season-opening road match in Buies Creek, North Carolina. Hunter will make his home coaching debut on September 4th when the Lady Rams take on the Gardner Webb Bulldogs at 7:00 p.m. at the C.E. Gaines Center on the campus of Winston-Salem State University.
