Clinching time nears in SIAC, CIAA

LUT WILLIAMS

BCSP Editor

With only two weeks left in the SIAC and CIAA regular seasons, combatants for their Nov. 10 championship games have not been decided.

SIAC

Under second-year head coach Gabe Giardina, BCSP No. 10 Albany State (5-3, 4-0 E) is in the driver's seat in the East Division race headed to a big game Saturday (2 p.m.) on the road at Benedict (5-2, 3-1 E), currently in a tie for second-place with Morehouse (7-1, 3-1 E).

The game will match Giardina's ASU troops with the Tigers of wily veteran James White who coached Albany State for 15 years before taking over at Benedict four years ago.

After losing its first three games, Albany State has won five straight. Benedict had won five in a row before falling at home last week to Morehouse (14-10). A win by the Golden Rams will clinch the division title and put them in the Nov. 10 conference title game. A win by Benedict however will create a tie atop the division and possibly bring Morehouse into the title picture.

Morehouse plays its homecoming game Saturday (2 p.m.) vs. Fort Valley State.

In the West, Tuskegee (5-3, 3-1 W) has a half-game lead over Miles (2-6, 2-2 W) entering the final two weeks of regular season play.

Tuskegee is on the road at Central State Saturday (1 p.m.) while Miles plays at Clark Atlanta (1 p.m.). Tuskegee earns the division title with a win and loss by Miles. A win by both sets up a Nov. 3 finale at Miles (Fairfield, Ala., 2 p.m.) for the division title and championship game berth.

The Nov. 10 SIAC championship game will be played on the home field of the West Division champion.
