Tests for unbeatens, leaders this week

LUT WILLIAMS

BCSP Editor

The process of weeding out contenders from pretenders for league championships continues this week in all four HBCU conferences.

CIAA

There are only two undefeated teams remaining in black college football and they are from different divisions of the CIAA – Damon Wilson's 4-0 defending league champion Bowie State Bulldogs from the North and the 4-0 Livingstone Blue Bears under Darryl Williams of the South.

Both will face tests this the last week of inter-divisional play before the league spends the last five weeks of the regular season in intra-divisional competition.

In Winston-Salem (N. C.) Saturday, BCSP No. 10 BSU, ranked 20th in the latest AFCA Div. II (national) Poll, visits the Rams of Winston-Salem State (1-3, 0-1).

BSU is 2-0 vs. the South with a close win over Shaw (25-21) and a blowout win last week over St. Augustine's (54-6).

WSSU, has played four close games, losing on the road to UNC-Pembroke (27-21) in its season opener, falling to Catawba at home a week later (21-14), defeating Tuskegee on the road (23-20) before losing a close one at N. Div. contender Virginia Union Saturday (16-15).
