XTRA NOTES

• RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCES! - One North Carolina A&T player set a program record and another came close in the Aggies' 27-21 win over Charleston Southern Saturday.

Senior wideout Elijah Bell was big in the game, hauling in five catches for 77 yards including a two-point conversion.

The 77 yards pushed Bell past former A&T great Herb-harbert Harbison on the career receiving yardage list.

Bell broke the record on a 42-yard reception from graduate quarterback Kyli Carter with 9:23 remaining in the game.

Bell needs 12 receptions to break Harbison's record for career catches.

Junior running back Jah-Maine Martin ran for 299 yards and two touchdowns on Cape Girardeau in the win.

He broke off scoring runs of 84 and 76 yards in the fourth quarter of the comeback win.

The 299-effort was the third-best single-game performance in A&T history.

Former Aggie running back Maurice Hicks holds the best two performances with a then-NCAA record 437 yards rushing at Morgan State in 2001...

and 353 yards rushing against S.C. State in 2000.

Martin's 84-yard run is the fifth-best in school history tied with Tarik Cohen (2016) and Michael Basnight (1996).
